

While I support a federal level no-call list bill, I oppose the the section of the bill which would invalidate individual states no-call laws which are more restrictive. I support Wisconsin's no-call list and do not want a federal no-call bill weakening Wisconsin consumer rights.